CHAIR: Guzman reports congratulations to Hump Week for an amazing week, thank you to all the committees and members who helped out. Make sure everyone is signing up to help out at Charity Week next week!

VICE-CHAIR: Zautner reports congratulations to Hump Week and everyone who co-sponsored with them. Shirts are in, you can't pick it up until you pay so make sure you give your money to Jen.

SECRETARY: Delaney reports congratulations to Hump Week and all of the other events last week! Good luck to this weeks events.

TREASURER: Tashjian reports congratulations Hump Week. Keep filling out forms if you're planning to spend money, and keep your budget books updated.

PUBLIC RELATIONS: Jensen reports congratulations to Hump Week, good luck to this weeks events.

PARLIAMENTARIAN: Armstrong reports congratulations Hump Week and good job to all who co-sponsored. Good luck to all events this week and coming up for the rest of the semester.

COMMUNICATIONS: Smith reports congratulations to Hump Week, she had an amazing time at the events, as did the rest of the students. Good luck to this weeks events.

Committee Reports

SPECIAL EVENTS: Caldara reports that the haunt was cancelled on Saturday night, but we were informed that tickets would still be available to the people who still wanted to go on Sunday. She is trying to work on refunds for those who could not go.

CONCERTS: Laudenschlager and Angelini have no formal report.

COFFEEHOUSE: Harrison and Kalic report that last week's event was a Riddle Scavenger Hunt. Thanks to all that helped out despite the weather! This week's event will be "Are You Smarter Than the Presidents," featuring Alex Mazza, Joe Fava, and Eric Guzman. If anybody would like to be the host of this event, please let them know!

FINE ARTS: Cullen reports that La Cage was last weekend, a lot of faculty went as well as students.

MOVIES: Eliseo reports that for last weeks showing of Harry Potter, there were 33 attendees on Thursday, 35 on Friday, 31 on Saturday, and 32 on Sunday. This week's movie is Captain America.

SPEAKERS: Eversley reports that she is working on t-shirts for Staff for the event.

CHARITY WEEK: Patterson and Curro report that they will be discussing all of the details of the week at their committee meeting tonight. They are going to be on SAINTS Live tonight at 9 pm, so tune in and watch! They're committee meeting will be directly after tonight's board meeting.

HUMP WEEK: DelSanto and Dunn report thank you to everyone for all of the support and help last week. Thank you to all of the committees who co-sponsored events.

WINTER WEEKEND: Barry and Brockman report that Winter Weekend has finalized most of its events! They will be having a small event with Study Abroad on Wednesday, December 7th during free period that will be complete with treats and study abroad information. They have talked to Norm about food for the events and will be meeting with him again sometime this week to finalize the food.

SIBLINGS WEEKEND: Donato and O'Brien report they had a meeting last Thursday with Jen and discussed possible events that they can have during the weekend, so they have brainstormed a few ideas and are formulating the schedule and the events that will be taking place throughout the weekend.

SIENAFEST: Kawola and Iannuzzi have no formal report.

Class Reports

Class of 2012: Knox reports that there will be no Class Council meeting tonight.

Class of 2013: Grippa reports that their sushi luncheon went off very well, it was not wall to wall people but a steady flow of traffic so people were coming and going as they pleased. There was plenty of food and lots of happy smiling faces because of the delicious sushi! The Class of 2013 has a new treasurer Hayden Carlin and he has already started his duties as treasurer.

Class of 2014: Tayler has no formal report.

Class of 2015: TBA

Commuter/Senate/Residence Hall Association Reports:

COMMUTER: Tlaige reports that Commuter Coffee Days start tomorrow and they will be having a luncheon this Wednesday.

SENATE REPRESENTATIVE: Lesperance reports that they are working to get dodgeball back as one of the intramurals sports. Vice President Justin Devendorf informed the senate that the required service component to the club manual was taken away. The E-Board is working on revising the Senate Constitution to help guide future administrations on the specific jobs of each position. The 2nd Wednesday of November will be the first SPAC meeting. There was an inquiry about the increase in dog pound prices this year and Executive Assistant Jess Esposito informed us that the increase was only $5 and was directly influenced by an increase in general admission prices.

RESIDENCE HALL ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVE: St. Amour reports that RHA discussed how halls could be better utilized for publicity and how to do PR better within RHA and they used SEB as an example! RHA is excited to get involved with Winter Weekend and can drive. The respect issue towards Public Safety was also discussed.

Student-At-Large Reports:

STUDENT AT-LARGE 1: McKenna reports that he will be joining Schoonmaker this Wednesday.

STUDENT-AT-LARGE 2: Schoonmaker reports he will be sitting outside of the wrap shop again on Wednesday, at 9 pm.
