Q19. Currently, of the 63 members of the New York State Senate, 32 were elected as Democrats and 31 were elected as Republicans. However, Republicans control the State Senate because one of the Democrats sits with the Republicans and five Democrats known as the Independent Democratic Caucus also side with the Republicans. In November, all 63 Senate seats will be up for election. After the election, which party would you like to see control the State Senate: [CHOICES ROTATED]
