Faculty Colleagues

As an increasing number of faculty assign substantive research projects as part of course requirements and as the number of research based independent studies grows, TWSCB 2018 presents an opportunity for students to present the results of their intellectual efforts in a collegial environment. It is our intent to review all submissions and accept the best papers submitted for presentation and publication in Proceedings. Students would be asked to present their papers during a half-day conference, likely run with concurrent sessions.

The primary goal is to establish a conference that will allow students to showcase their work in Business Administration, General Business, Marketing, Management, Entrepreneurship, Accounting, Finance, and Economics. We seek your support in directing your students to submit term papers, term projects, and research papers to the Ted R. Winnowski '63 Student Conference in Business. We will be glad to review papers from Summer 2017, Fall 2017, and Spring 2018 semesters.

Please share this call for Papers with your students and colleagues in your department and other departments.

Thank you!

Papers Accepted for Review until March 1st, 2018
